

It is unbelievable that it would be considered to relax regulations allowing even more profanity and nudity on television. It will certainly have negative consequences for us and our children. I strongly oppose it.